

Maple/Matlab on-line video course donation

Campus update

Date posted: June 14, 2004

Laurier users of Maple and MATLAB will be interested to learn that one of the sponsors of ECCAD 2004, TechnicalMastery.com (based in Waterloo Region), has donated to Laurier a perpetual site license for its on-line video-based courses Maple Mastery I and MATLAB Mastery I.

Faculty, staff and students may learn Maple and MATLAB at their own pace by visiting www.TechnicalMastery.com/eval.

This address is temporary while the courses are installed on a Laurier server (before Fall).

ECCAD'2004 was organized at Laurier on May 8, 2004 by Dr. Ilias S. Kotsireas with a turnout of about 90 participants.

e-ECCAD'2004, the web archive of ECCAD'2004, features videos with the 3 invited speakers talks, poster abstracts, sponsor messages and conference photos and other material. e-ECCAD'2004 can be accessed at www.cargo.wlu.ca/e-ECCAD2004/.
